Salary: £27,238 - £45,109. Incremental progression throughout the band is available.

Contract Type: Permanent | Hours per Week: 1 FTE | Location: Pendleton Sixth Form College, Dronfield Road, M6 7FR

About the Role

An opportunity has arisen for an experienced Physics teacher, with a proven track record of academic success and achievement, to undertake the role of Deputy Head of Department (DHoD) at Pendleton Sixth Form College.

You will promote the highest levels of achievement for all students through the delivery of inspirational teaching and learning and work with your science team to develop and monitor the curriculum to maximise the achievement of all students.

You will be one of two DHoDs in the STEM department, comprising of A-level Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Maths, Further Maths and Computer Science. Many of our teachers are also examiners and some have worked in the STEM industry prior to teaching, bringing their knowledge to the classroom.

Enrichment is a key strength in the department with trips to CERN, and visiting speakers including Oxford University lecturers. If you would like to discuss the role further, please contact Lindsey Abbott (lindsey.abbott@salfordcc.ac.uk)
Start date: Monday 5th January 2026
