About the Role

An opportunity has arisen for a qualified, enthusiastic and skilled teacher with a proven track record of academic success and achievement to teach Film & Media at Pendleton Sixth Form College. The successful applicant must possess the ability to teach students of mixed abilities, many of whom choose to pursue this subject at university. We are seeking someone with excellent subject knowledge and technical skills who can demonstrate an ability to combine academic rigor with excellent student achievement. Experience of teaching at A Level is essential and candidates must possess a genuine interest in the subject area. The successful candidate must be student-focused, possess a relevant subject degree and have an appropriate postgraduate qualification. The post is suitable for qualified teachers or ECTs and the successful candidate must be committed to providing pastoral support for all our students. As a Teacher of Media & Film you will be an inspirational and outstanding practitioner who promotes the highest levels of achievement for all students. As part of a strong curriculum team in a rapidly developing curriculum area, you will focus on increasing recruitment and working towards College and departmental targets to exceed National Benchmarks and achieve strong value added.
