About the Role

An exciting opportunity has arisen to be a teacher of the Deaf and British Sign Language as part of the Adult Skills Place Based Project Pilot. This is a novel collaborative project between Salford City College Group and Salford City Council. The aim of the project is to focus on engagement and participation of those hardest to reach across the most disengaged wards of Salford, particularly those where there are large disparities between claimant rate and engagement. In addition to those belonging to niche communities and/or adults with cognitive, neurodiverse or physical learning differences. This consists of utilising key agencies and partners across the city and is also the catalyst for aligning commissioning across Salford as part of multi-agency collaborative strategic planning. This role will involve supporting with consultation and engagement activities across the city.
